Comments: The author of the original study declined the invitation of the Coordination Office. It should also be pointed out that the theme of this study is similar to that of another study prepared by the Secretariat of the Commission. Responsibility for updating the latter study was given to a new expert (Maurice Arbour, Université Laval), chosen in a call for proposals and recommended by the evaluation committee. That update, entitled L'accès du Québec aux marchés extérieurs et à l'espace économique canadien (access by Québec to external markets and to Canada's economic space), contains some elements of the Ivan Bernier study.
